

Growing in My Spirituality & Relationship with God Day of Reflection with Fr. Rento

Saturday, September 25, 8:30am followed with Mass in the Gathering Rooms

What images come to mind as you think about God?

How do you think God feels about you?

Has there ever been a time, a moment, when you did not feel God's love?

In this tenth year of a new millennium, let's reflect and share what old ideas of God we want to keep and which ones need to be changed or discarded, so that we may live in greater peace and hope.

Fr Richard Rento, native of Clifton, N.J., attended Seton Hall University, Immaculate Conception Seminary, and the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. He had been a priest of the Diocese of Paterson for 52 years and was diocesan director of religious education for 20 years and director of continuing education for priests; then served as pastoral team coordinator at St. Brendan Church in Clifton. In 1998, he retired and now lives in Lavallette, NJ. He remains active as Catholic chaplain at the Seabrook Village retirement community in Tinton Falls, presides at the weekly WPAT Radio Mass in Paterson, lectures, and gives retreats and days of recollection.
