Through storytelling, music, beautiful imagery, and the creation of pottery, presenter Ray Boswell will lead us in a reflection on how God is the potter and we are the clay. God is Creator, and we are His creation. Because of His great love for us, He has poured out the Holy Spirit in each of us. We are each a special dwelling place for God, and we are called to pour out what God has given us and share it with others. This multimedia presentation will engage our senses, inspire us, and gently call us to listen for God's gentle voice as He shapes us and molds us in love.

 Please note that Ray cannot be with us on Saturday, so we highly encourage you to come to the weekday sessions. On Saturday we will have a make-up gathering and video of Ray's presentation.*
