My Interview with 106 year-old Josie Troescher

Fourteen years ago, I had the privilege of interviewing Josie (who died peacefully in her sleep not long after our conversation). She was born in 1905, her career at Western Electric in NYC spanned decades, and she remained single. I asked her the following:

What's the secret of longevity? (Keep in mind she admitted walking everywhere - clearly that helped!). "The Lord wants me to do something; he is letting me be with you. I can't answer it really."

What was your favorite thing to do? "Cook, especially pot roast and bake soda bread & Christmas cookies. I also loved to entertain and make others feel important when visiting."

What do you like most outdoors? "Lake Mohawk, run by the Quakers."

What is your favorite feeling? "When family members come to visit (especially with those with whom I have a good rapport), it's gratifying and a time that's very precious to me."

Take time this fall to visit a relative or friend in a nursing home. There are many folks without visitors. Human presence changes a person's whole day. You will leave the visit feeling good about yourself, grateful for elder wisdom, & thanking God for the gift of life.

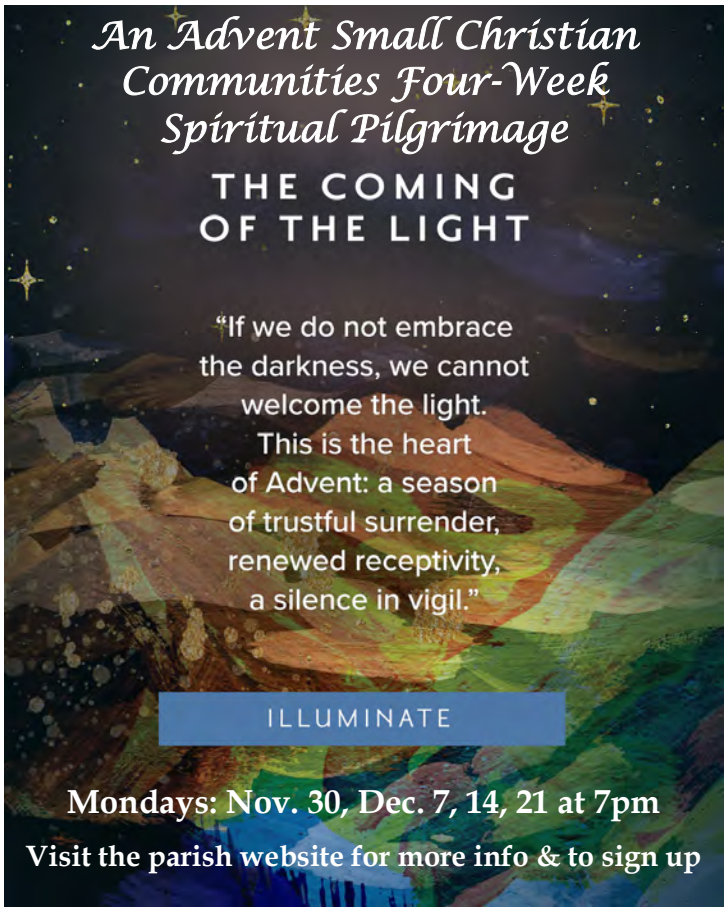

Autumn Blessings,
Fr. Anthony

Dear Fr. Anthony,

Thank you for allowing our volunteers to sell our 50/50 raffle tickets at your parish. You are always so supportive of the Sisters of Charity & Maris Stella. Our mission here is to welcome all who come to Maris Stella seeking God on retreat, mass or vacation. The beauty of God's creation here brings healing and peace to so many. The generosity of you and your parishioners makes it possible for us to carry out that mission. You are all in our prayers and trust in your prayers for all of us at Maris Stella.

Peace & Blessings,
Sr. Patricia Dotzauer SC
Maris Stella Administrator

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

The Church's social teaching shows us how to build a just society and live lives of holiness in the 21st century.

Each person is SACRED,
made in God's image, equal in dignity.

Each person is SOCIAL,
called to participate in family & community.

All people have RIGHTS and RESPONSIBILITIES.
The right to life and its necessities, the responsibility to respect the rights of others and work for the common good.

We care for people who are POOR and vulnerable,
before all else.

Workers have rights. WORK has dignity.
We are partners with God in creation.

SOLIDARITY is our call.
We are our brothers' & sisters' keepers.

We care for CREATION.
We live in interdependence with all God has made.
